

Norwalk Public Library Interactive Media Use Policy

In order to allow everyone to use the library without being disturbed by noise, the use of any device, equipment or software that requires one to speak, such as cell phones, any other communication devices or interactive computer applications is prohibited. Anyone wishing to listen to anything from any device as described must use a headset and keep the volume down so as to be inaudible to others.